

Document Doctor Service

Personalised advice on writing documents and content

Our satisfaction guarantee

We want you to be completely satisfied with your consultation time. If you don't think our service has helped you, then we will give you your money back.

Ready to book?

If you are ready to book right now use our online booking and payment facility and we will call you back to confirm your consultation time.

What's it all about?

Ever had that sinking feeling when you know you have a document or content to write? Ever had an ever bigger feeling of panic when you've created the first draft and you know all is not well?

Have you ever wished you could talk through your plans before you start writing or have your first draft reviewed by a truly impartial content writing expert?

Well thanks to the Document Doctor, now both of those wishes can be granted.

How can the Document Doctor help?

The Document Doctor service can help you in two ways:

Pre-writing consultation

Having difficulty analysing, scoping and planning the writing task ahead? This consultation gives you 30 minutes with the Doctor to help you get things clear.

Cost: £25, plus VAT

First draft consultation

Got a first draft that needs some work on it? Submit this by email a couple of days before the consultation and then have 40 minutes with the Doctor to help work out the action you need to take.

Cost: £65, plus VAT

Additional blocks of consulting time

If you find that the initial amount of time for either type of consultation is not enough, you can easily buy additional 20 minute blocks of time.

Cost per additional 20 minute block: £18, plus VAT

How does it work?

The Document Doctor service is really easy to use:

1. Use the form on our website or call us on 0845 122 7102
2. Talk through what you want to achieve and set some objectives
3. Arrange a mutually convenient time for your consultation
4. Book and pay for your consultation type either online or by phone
5. Submit your document via email - if you are using the first draft service

Our satisfaction guarantee

We want you to be completely satisfied with your consultation time. If you don't think our service has helped you, then we will give you your money back.

Calling you for the consultation

If you have a UK landline number, we will call you. For all other numbers, we ask you to call us. Alternatively, we can arrange to connect with you via Skype or similar voice over IP (VOIP) services